17/02/21	Empty Property Strategy and Action Plan Purpose: Empty properties can be detrimental to the lives of local residents as they are often a magnet for crime and anti-social behaviour. Additionally, they drive down property values, contribute to neighbourhood decline and bring a feeling of general neglect. Dealing with empty homes supports our “protect, care and invest to create a better borough” and Pride in the Community ambitions where we are striving for well-maintained neighbourhoods. Working to bring long term empty homes back into use is an important priority for the council. The case for dealing with empty properties has always been compelling, but at a time when we still lack sufficient suitable, affordable homes for all of our residents, we need to maximise every available opportunity.	K	Cabinet Lead Cabinet Member Cabinet Member for Economy, Housing, Transport and Infrastructure (Councillor David Wright)	22/04/21	Open	Report of the Director: Housing, Employment & Infrastructure
